Minister David Ridgway witnessed the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between South Australian technology company IPACS Australia and international business headquartered in South Africa, Tacmin Group.

CEO of Tacmin Group, Sarel Blaauw founded Tacmin Madini in 1996, establishing a Tacmin Group subsidiary in Perth in 2018, and an office in Adelaide earlier this year.

IPACS and Tacmin have initiated work together under a non-disclosure agreement, generating international interest from global mining companies with their approach to condition monitoring of mine haul trucks.

The two companies are currently working on proposals for key international customers, formalising their collaboration through an MoU.
